Book drive now for Bandera County Jail

By Sabrina Van De Walle Contributed

The Christian Job Corps of Kendall County is holding its bi-annual Book Drive to fill the library at the Bandera County Jail. The organization is looking for inspirational fiction and non-fiction paperback books in paperback, faith-based literature and bibles. Books may be dropped off at the Bandera Kronkosky Public Library, Lakehills Area Library and Lakehills Community Center until June 26. Volunteers are needed to sort and pray over the books before they enter the jail.
