

The Bandera PROPHEET

August 15, 2023

September Color Run to benefit Bandera Foster Closet

By Jessica Nohealapa'ahi
The Bandera Prophet

The Bandera Foster Closet Color Run is set for Saturday, Sept. 23, at Bandera City Park. A fun event for everyone, all ages are invited to participate.

Participants may choose between the 3k and 5k runs, and both feature water and color splashes (runners are advised to dress accordingly, and not wear or bring anything on the trail that may be stained or should not get wet). Runners are asked to wear a white or light-colored shirt.

Adult entry is $30, child entry for ages 5-13 is $20, kids 4 and younger are free.

A Bandera Foster Closet T-shirt and wrist band are included with the entry fees. All proceeds will benefit the Bandera Foster Closet.

Gates will open at 9 a.m., the events will take place from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The City Park is at 1102 Maple Street, Bandera.

To register, go to <https://www.purplepass.com/banderacolorrn>