

The Bandera PROPHEET

October 11, 2023

Bandera Natural History Museum receives $75,000 grant

The Kronkosky Charitable Foundation awarded a $75,000 grant to the Bandera Natural History Museum. The grant funds will be used to enhance the offerings of the BNHM through the use of technology. New and upgraded technology will allow the BNHM to provide more educational programs and add to the overall visitor experience.

Pictured: Kronkosky Charitable Foundation Program Manager Rudy Skultety presents the $75,000 check to Juan Carlos Infante, center, accompanied by museum Board Directors John Pearce (left) and Don Giles (right) and Managing Director of Operations Dr. Maggie Schumacher.